TOGETHER IN ELECTRIC DREAMS

Rewind 1984. In the 1980s, the music industry was in a state of flux. The rise of MTV and the decline of the radio as the primary source of music discovery. The industry was looking for new ways to connect with its audience. This was the era of the music video, and it was here that the industry found a new way to promote its artists. The music video became a powerful tool for artists to showcase their talent and connect with their fans. It was a time of experimentation and innovation, and it was here that the industry found a new way to connect with its audience.

SELF DRIVING CARGO CULT
IN MY FEAR OF PRESENCE
I CAST A NEW WORLD
WITH WAX SCULPTURES --
LO! THE LIGHT,
COMFORTING LIGHT OF LOVE
MELTING THOSE CONSTITUENTS
WHOS DISTANCE HANED TOO BRIGHT
AND CAST AWAY WERE THE OUTLAWS
DEFIERS OF MEMORY
TO HAUNT MY WORLD'S FAMILIARS
WITH LACK LADDERS AND DESIRE
DARE I WONDER WHAT LOFTS
AT THE TOP OF MOUNT UNREALIZED
BUT GHOSTLY FIGURES OF MY OWN EXILE
A FEAR OF TRUTH
DONE INTO FORGOTTEN TRUTH
DESCENDING TOWARD
MY WAXY LAKE AT NIGHT
